

tenshi is a dynamic 24-year-old EDM producer and DJ specializing in bass music and dubstep, crafting heavy-hitting tracks that fuse aggressive drops inspired by Tisoki, Voltra, and Ray Volpe with emotive, melodic influences from Porter Robinson, Phritz, botanica, petalcore, and trance. Since starting production in high school, he has amassed over 100k Spotify streams (top track at 42k) and 140k on SoundCloud—including standouts like his Gryofield - Out Of My Mind (tenshi remix) (15.2k plays) and talk2me (11.9k)—with previous releases like the tenshi asian pop remix pack vol 1, Spotify Internet Rave-playlisted souldive, and the koruppt/O2 B-side earning widespread acclaim. A proven live performer, tenshi has opened for heavyweights like Eptic, Leotrix, and MUST DIE!, plus direct support for Crumb Pit's Toronto show, delivering music that's as intricate for solo headphone sessions as it is crowd-igniting on the dancefloor. His latest self-released collaboration by ur side with Tudd drops January 2, 2026, pushing his signature electro house sound into fresh emotional territory.
